CULTURAL CORNER

(Activities in the part of Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav)

➤ National Youth Day (06-01-2023)

National Youth Day is a day to celebrate and recognize the vital role that young people play in all parts of society. Its occurrence on 12 January every year marks the birthday of Swami Vivekananda— one of the greatest spiritual leaders India has ever seen. National Youth Day has been celebrated since 1984 when Swami Vivekananda's birth anniversary was specifically declared as National Youth Day. The aim of the day is to motivate and inspire the youth of India. As a part of that, the college principal, Dr. B. Annapurna Sarada, at Dr. Yeduguri Sandinti Rajasekhar Reddy (YSR) Government Degree College, Vedurukuppam, organised the National Youth Day with the support of the NSS coordinator, Dr. C. Mangalagowri, the YRC coordinator, Dr. K. Sankar Reddy, and Academic Coordinator, Smt. BLP Latha. Speaking to the students, the college principal followed by coordinators said that the student should follow in the footsteps of Swami Vivekananda and become better citizens and make the country stronger. The event was conducted by involving 75 students and faculty.

➤ Sankranti Sambaralu (09-01-2023)

Fig. The College Principal Addressing Students

Sankranthi Sambaralu is an elaborate and colourful three-day celebration held in India to mark the beginning of a new year. For Hindus, it marks the start of their New Year and is considered to be one of the most important festivals. It's celebrated with a lot of zeal and enthusiasm, and people exchange mutual greetings and wishes with each other.

The first day is known as Bhogi where the people decorate their homes and discard old and worn-out things. The next day is Sankranti or Makar Sankranti and is celebrated with grand festivities. On this day, the people prepare and enjoy a new dish called 'Pongal'. The third day of the festival is Kanu, where young women offer Puja to the sea god Varuna. People dress in vibrant attire and exchange gifts and regards to friends and family.

The Rangoli competitions were conducted by the NSS Coordinator Dr. C. Mangala Gowri, College Principal Dr. B. Annapurna Sarada, and Academic Coordinator Smt. BLP Latha. Vice Principal, Dr. V. Prabhakar Rao, and Lecturers along with 160 students were engaged in the function. The celebration began with speeches by the principal, Dr. B. Annapurna Sarada in blessing and wishing the students to have a prosperous new year ahead.

➤ Drug Abuse Awareness program (19-01-23)

As per the instructions of Human Capital Management (HCM) to ensure that the state of AP has to be declared as a 'Drug-free' state within a period of 4 months, It is instructed by the Chittoor collector Shri. M. Hari Narayan, IAS; to conduct awareness meetings and place the approved awareness hoardings, billboards, and banners in all the government institutions and all public gathering places in Chittoor district by 20th January 2023. Keeping this in view, Dr YSR GDC, Vedurukuppam conducted an awareness program on Drug abuse on 19th January 2023. About 75 students along with staff participated in the program. The college principal-Dr.B. Annapurna Sarada, NSS coordinator- Dr. C. Mangala Gowri and YRC coordinator-Dr. K. Sankara Reddy along with staff conducted activities in a devotional manner to avoid their students from the addiction of Drugs and adoption of bad pathways and for a better future.

The program is also uploaded on Youtube with a link of ---- <https://youtu.be/3kz-imvK5eA->. Throughout the program, all the students & staff cooperated in making the programme a grand success. The following are a few glimpses of the program.

➤ On-Job Awareness Program (Setwin)

The IQAC of GDC, Vedurukuppam has conducted an on-job awareness program on 23-01-2023 to enlighten the students about the current job opportunities in the state. The program was conducted as a part of Internship guidance under the aegis of IQAC. The college principal, Dr. B. Annapurna Sarada and IQAC Coordinator, Dr. P. Venkatesu invited the SETWIN director, N.S. Reddy was a special guest for the program. Speaking to the students, he said that a job awareness program must focus on a few fundamental components. First, an understanding of the company culture and expectations. It's important that all employees understand the company's values and vision, as this helps ensure that everyone is on the same page in terms of how the job should be conducted. Additionally, the job awareness program should provide employees with a thorough understanding of their roles and job expectations. This can include training and skill acquisition, and appropriate team dynamics etc., finally the college principal honoured him with Saluva for his valuable information regarding job opportunities and workplace adjustments.

➤ Republic Day Celebration (26-01-2023)

January 26th, 2023 marks a special day in India - the 74th Republic Day. The remarkable event is held to commemorate the declaration of the adoption of the Indian Constitution on that very day back in 1950 and the transition of India from a British dominion to a full-fledged and independent republic.

The NSS conducted the program as a part of 'Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav' under the aegis of IQAC along with 150 students. The students participate in activities like free debate; talent hunt events; sports and games; quiz contests and so on. Many students also raise patriotic slogans and wave the tricolour, celebrating the spirit of independence. Finally, the prizes were distributed to the students by the college principal on the hands of the Cultural coordinator, Dr. K. Bhimamohan Rao, the YRC coordinator, Dr. K. Sankar Reddy and the NSS coordinator, Dr. C. Mangala Gowri.
